

DEALER VEHICLE IDENTIFICATION INSPECTION APPLICATION

You may submit up to two (2) employees names to perform vehicle identification number (VIN) inspections. These inspections can only be performed on vehicles in your inventory. By law, no fee is to be charged to your customers to perform these inspections. Any vehicle with an altered VIN plate or without a public VIN (VIN plate on dashboard) must be inspected by a police officer. Document the inspection either on State Form 205/State Form 44049 - Application for Certificate of Title or State Form 39530 - Affidavit of Police Officer. Requisition these forms through standard procurement channels. To delete VIN inspectors you must notify the BMV at the address below or fax request to (317) 233-0053. To add or replace a VIN checker mail or fax this form. No more than two inspectors are permitted at any one dealership. Regardless of submission date, all appointments expire on December 31 of each calendar year. You may contact Vehicle Services Administration Section at (317) 232-2861 for further information.
